

Geographic Enrichment Cycle

Purpose and Process

Revised 12/11/19

The mission of the Charlevoix County Community Foundation (C3F) is to enhance the quality of life for all citizens of Charlevoix County, now and for generations to come. The Community Foundation helps people make a difference close to home by accepting contributions of all sizes. Each year, the Community Foundation makes grants that support a wide variety of organizations, schools, and municipalities in their work.

What is the purpose of the Geographic Enrichment Cycle?

The purpose of the Geographic Enrichment Cycle is to offer all eligible non-profit partners the opportunity to apply for project support on Beaver Island, in Boyne City, Charlevoix, and East Jordan through the Community Foundation. Individuals, couples, families, and businesses who advise funds at the Community Foundation (donor advisors) may choose to make grants through the cycle as well.

Eligible applicants include:

- 501(c)(3) tax-exempt non-profit organizations;
- All units of government;
- All educational institutions (preschool through college);
- Organizations described above that serve Beaver Island, Boyne City, Charlevoix, or East Jordan.

When is the application deadline?

The Geographic Enrichment Cycle deadline is October 1 by 11:59 PM (Eastern), regardless of whether this is a weekday or weekend. The application will be available annually at www.c3f.org, beginning August 1.

What kinds of projects or programs are most likely to receive grant funding?

The Geographic Enrichment Cycle aims to attract requests that are focused on the people of and places in Charlevoix County's individual communities. There are enrichment funds dedicated to Beaver Island, Boyne City, Charlevoix, and East Jordan. Successful requests will include one or more of the following:

- demonstrates collaboration,
- addresses new needs or tries new approaches for existing needs,
- encourages people to help themselves,
- focuses on prevention of problems, and
- avoids duplication of services.

What kinds of grants are generally not funded?

The Community Foundation's grant cycles generally do not fund on-going operating expenses, annual fundraising campaigns, political campaigns, deficit spending, sectarian projects, or services normally supported by tax dollars.

What size grants are available in the Geographic Enrichment Cycle?

This cycle encourages grants of all sizes. This format does not limit the request to what the Community Foundation might be able to fund, but instead shows the organization's need. Endowed funds provide specific amounts for grant-making, but because many donor advised funds are less restricted, grants may be modest or quite generous in this Cycle. Community Foundation staff can provide additional guidance and information.

All grant applications require a cash match. How much is necessary?

It depends on the topic and scope of the project, but the expectation is that nonprofit partners will contribute to the budget of the project or program.

How does the Community Foundation make Geographic Enrichment Cycle grant decisions?

The Geographic Advisory Committees will review grant applications and recommend funding to the C3F Board of Trustees. The Community Foundation will also share these opportunities with donor advisors, who may choose make grant recommendations from their funds.

When will grant funding decisions be announced?

C3F staff will notify grant applicants following approval from the Community Foundation's Board of Trustees in early November.

What kind of follow up reporting is required?

The grant period is one year. A follow up report is available through the online grant portal to share about the successes of the program or project as well as the lessons learned. Providing photos is encouraged. Funded organizations will receive a reminder from administrator@grantinterface.com two weeks before the follow up report is due, then again one day prior to the due date, and once more if the report has not been submitted by the deadline. If the program or project is delayed or cannot be completed within the time period, the organization's representative should call the Community Foundation.

Are there any other requirements?

- All applications must be approved by the governing board of the applicant organization. The governing board is responsible for appropriate use of funds and project implementation.
- Grantees must be current with follow up reports for all previous grants in order to apply.
- Proposals from faith-based organizations must address community needs and
 - Have a clearly demonstrated public benefit;
 - Be fully accessible to all persons regardless of religious beliefs and lifestyle choices;
 - May NOT require anything in return for services provided. Examples: attending services or prayer groups and/or volunteering, etc.
